

Roxbury, March 29, 1869.

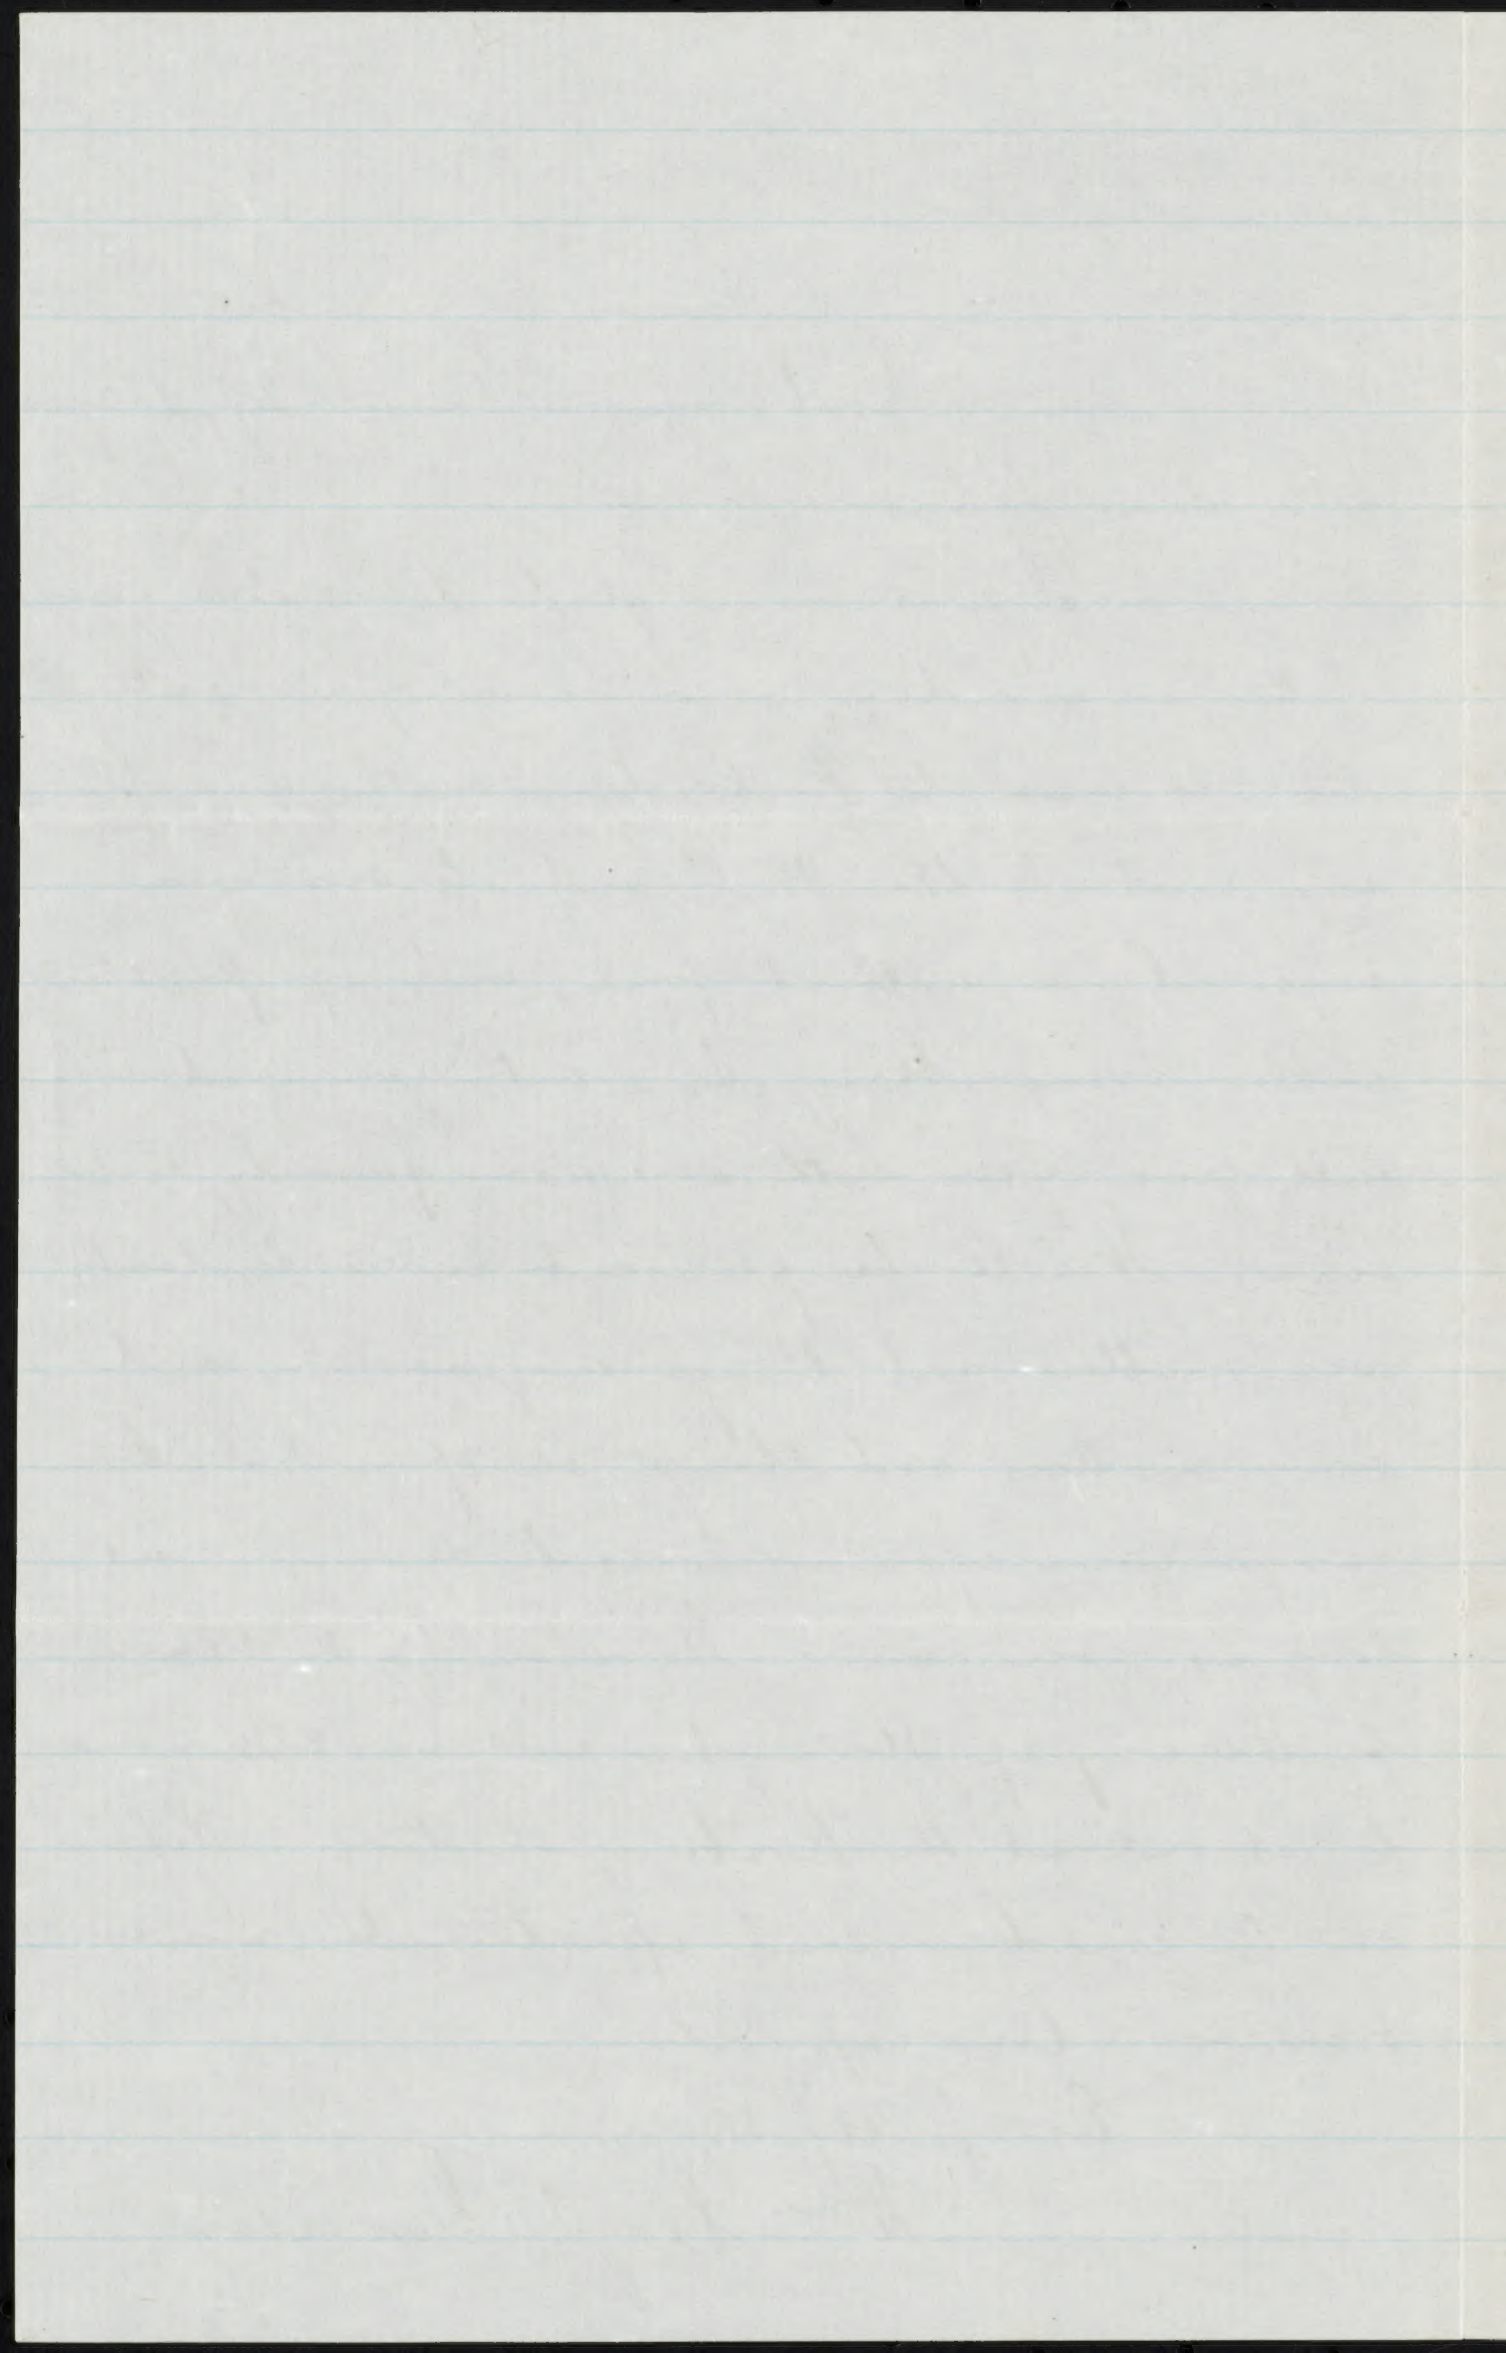

My dear Johnson:

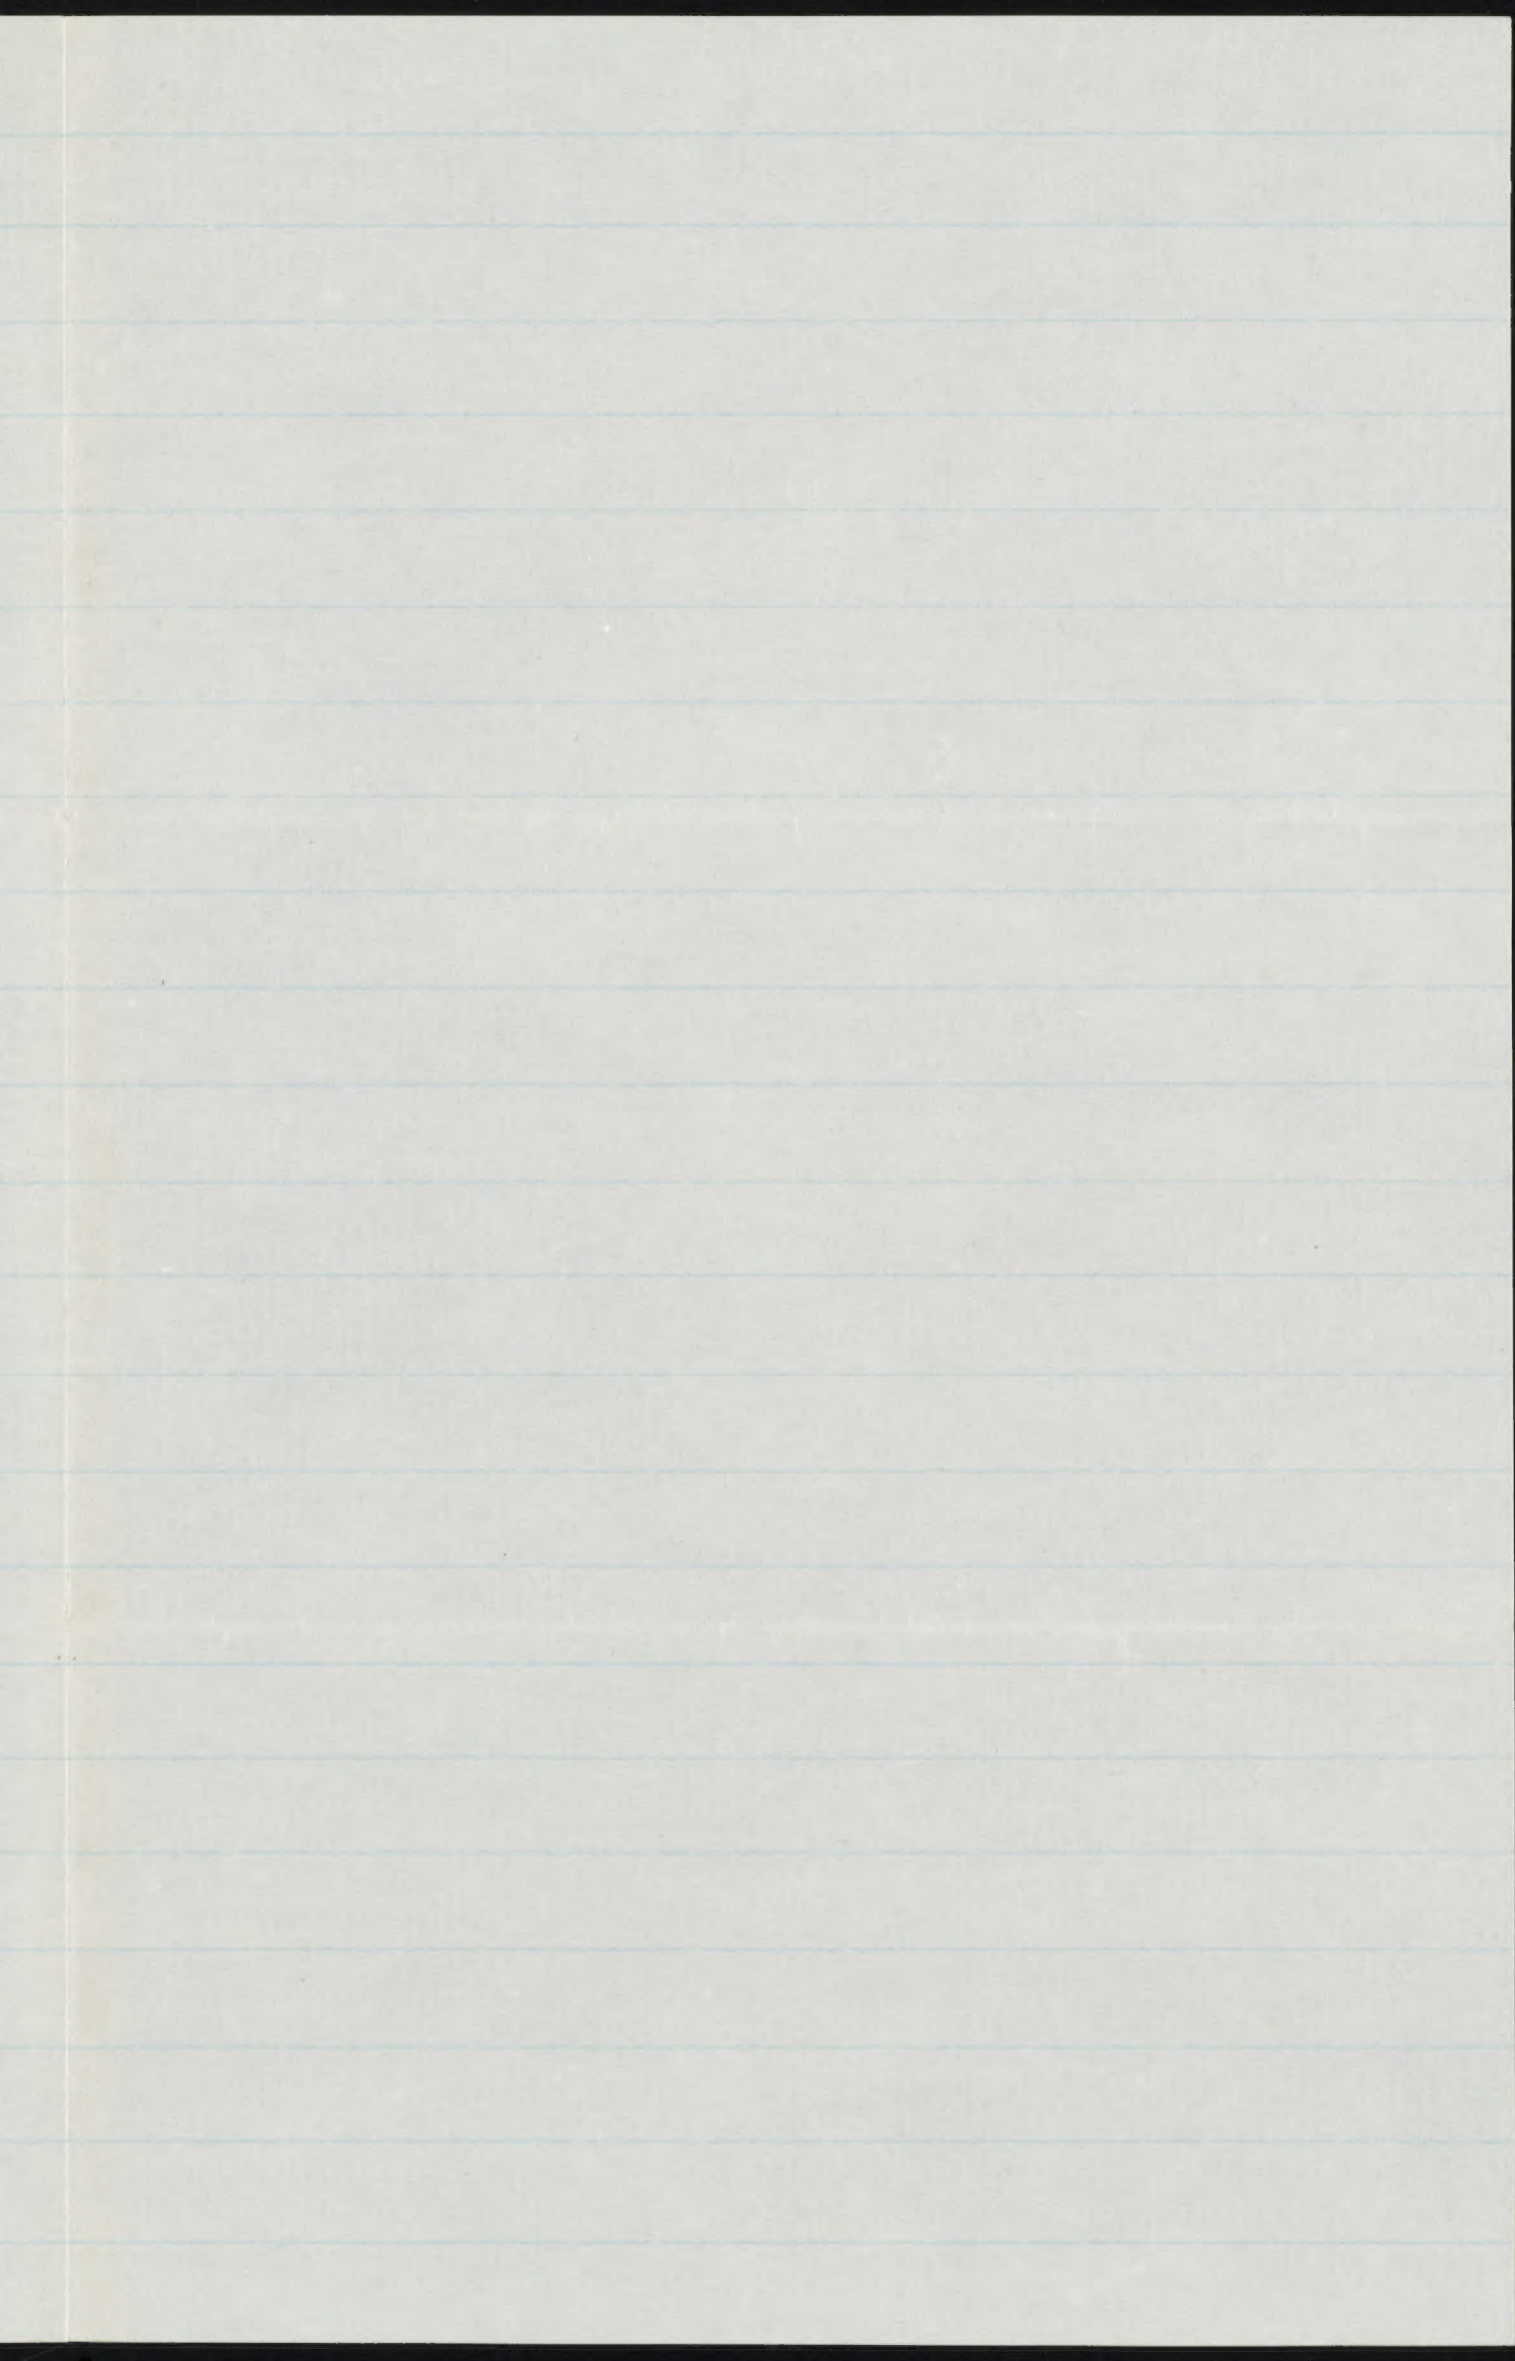

I was very glad to receive your letter on Friday, announcing your intention to come to Rockledge shortly on a flying visit to the "Hub" and its surroundings. Come, without fail, and, if practicable, bring Mary Ann with you, and we will give you both a warm family welcome. It will be pleasant indeed to talk over matters and things in general, and some matters and things in special. Arrange your affairs so as to remain as long as you can. The New York train by the way of Stonington will enable you to get out at the Roxbury station. Wife and the children send affectionate remembrances. Come speedily.

Ever faithfully yours,

Wm. Lloyd Garrison.
